

Name: PHAN CAO NHAT ANH

Position at present:

Deputy Director General, Institute for India and Southeast Asian Studies (VIISAS)
- Vietnam Academy of Social Sciences (VASS)

Specialization:

Japanese security, politics and diplomacy. Vietnam-Japan Relations.

Dr. Phan Cao Nhat Anh is currently Deputy Director - General of Vietnam Institute of Indian and Southwest Asian Studies, Vietnam Academy of Social Sciences. Dr. Nhat Anh has studied and researched on Northeast Asia for many years. He is the author of many research works such as: Editor of the book “Adjustment of political and social policies of Japan during the period of Prime Minister Shinzo Abe's second rule”, ISBN 978-604-308-258-6, Social Science Publishing House, 2020, 375 pp; Co-editor of the book “50 years of Diplomatic Relations between Vietnam and India: Restrospect and Prospects”, ISBN 978-604-364-448-7, Social Science Publishing House, 2023, 435 pp; “India-Japan Political-Security Cooperation Under Prime Minister Narendra Modi”, Journal Defense Relations, ISSN 1859-3739, No. 58, Second Quarter of 2022, pp. 70-76;... He regularly participates in international commentary programs of Vietnam National Defense Television, Vietnam News Agency, etc.